GRAND RAPIDS, JULY 17, 1886.

MINOR MICHIGAN MATTERS

The Muskegon City Band has recently reorganized.

A mile of new sewers have been ordered laid at Kalamazoo.

Only five ladies voted at the school meeting at Kalamazoo on Monday.

Shipments of cedar by the 100-horn loads are made at Kalamazoo almost daily.

No attempt to kill Prof. Adams' place at the University will be made until Aug. 23.

The Masons of Ann Arbor give an excursion to Detroit and Star Island, July 30.

The Masons, Cobbs of Kalamazoo, have bought 700,000 pounds of wood in the State.

The Tittabawasee Boom Company employing 500 men, shut down on Tuesday evening.

A legion of Select Knights auxiliary to the A. G. U. W. was organized at Battle Creek recently.

Kalamazoo county is now gathering one of the finest and largest wheat crops in all its history.

The Bay City Typographical Union has sent resolutions of sympathy to the strikers among the mill hands.

The Bay City Congregational Church celebrated the tenth anniversary of its organization on Sunday last.

Robert G. Chandler's residence was damaged by fire to the extent of $1,000 early Wednesday morning.

The Union Manufacturing Company's machine shops at Battle Creek, are now running fourteen hours a day.

The new $10,000 laboratory at Ann Arbor will be erected between the library and the President's house.

The racer, Myrtle, was given whisky last week to stimulate her, and was so drunk she could not finish the race.

The President has appointed Cornelius L. Barrett postmaster at Charlotte, in place of F. E. Lester, who resigned.

The University buildings are receiving new coats of paint and new doors, and the law and medical buildings new roofs.

The Elkhorn Milling Company, at Jackson, commenced putting the flour manufactured at their mill on the market Tuesday morning.

A Flint burglar on being discovered in a saloon jumped through a plate glass window and made good his escape, but without any booty.

Capt. M. J. Sink, after a long and painful illness, died at his home at Adrian, on Wednesday afternoon and was to be buried yesterday afternoon.

Hugh White, aged 16 years, was so badly cut by a cut-off saw at the Cutler Spring Lake mills on Wednesday, that he died that night.

The Star Minstrels, a company of home talent which existed at Battle Creek six or seven years ago, are talking of reorganizing and giving a concert.

Burglars secured $51 in silver from the store of George H. Main, at Ionia, on Monday night. It is supposed it was done by some one acquainted with the premises.

The board of managers of the soldiers' home held its first meeting at Detroit on Wednesday. They decided to visit all the sites offered, but the Governor begs to be excused.

J. L. Hudson, of Detroit, has adopted a rule by which every employee in his establishment is given a week's vacation every year and a half-holiday every week during July and August.

Gov. Mayer is not very complimentary to the Mayor of Bay City. He thinks he is of no account in such an emergency as the present and more than hints that his sympathies are with the strikers.

Dr. S. H. Wellings, late of Maple Rapids, has started for Vienna, Austria, where he intends taking a course of lectures at the University of Vienna. He will remain abroad about two years.

An intoxicated man lies down on the railroad track near Linden and his body is horribly mangled. But there is not a moderate drinker in the country who thinks he could ever come to such an end.

It is expected that the young men of the Agricultural College will have to walk pretty straight under President Willits' rule. No loafing around saloons, or even occasional visits there will be tolerated.

A stranger at Bay City tendered a bogus check in payment for a suit of clothes; but his would-be victim was too sharp for him and he was arrested. He gave his name as Henry Douglas and pleaded not guilty.

Wednesday morning, the house of K. Burger, of Menominee, was burned to the ground, and the five-year-old daughter of Mr. Burger perished in the flames. The other two children were taken out but slightly scorched.

Melchheimer & Kibbler were arrested on Wednesday at St. Joseph for keeping an open saloon on the 1st of July. The case was adjourned until Monday for trial. The law and order league preferred the charges.

The annual school meeting at First Baptist, on Monday night, was very orderly and it was feared at one time that blows would be struck. No action was taken on the proposition to build a $15,000 school house.

The palace steamer, "City of Alpena," ran aground on Round Island Point on her way to Mackinac, and was released by the steamer "Algoma" and wrecking tug "Lewiston" from Cheboygan on Wednesday afternoon.

O. P. Simpler's handsome brick dwelling at Charlotte was almost totally destroyed by fire on Wednesday morning. By great effort the firemen saved the contents, the absence of wind at the time saved the business portion of the city.

As many as fifteen or twenty houses have died in Clio township, Genesee county, of a strange disease which baffles the understanding and skill of the veterinary surgeons. Some of the latter have twenty or thirty cases at one time at Clio and Flint.

W. G. Simmons, ex-treasurer of Danvor township, Ottawa county, was arrested on Wednesday night for embezzlement. He was $1,750 short in his accounts last March, when he left office. His examination took place at Fremont yesterday. His bondsmen seem to know where some of the money has gone.

Alva McIver, a 14-year-old boy, a passenger on the schooner "C. H. Johnson," was deserted at Mackinac on Wednesday. He took the yawl boat belonging to the "Johnson," against the orders of the captain, C. H. Wallace, who was the boy's uncle, about 10 a. m., and while rowing it is supposed he accidentally fell overboard. His parents live at Cleveland.
